5th July 2017

Dear Parent/Carer

You will have read this week's letter from Mrs Stiles informing you that she is to leave her post as Headteacher of Cherry Willingham Community School at the end of the current academic year.

Mrs Stiles has worked tirelessly over many years to ensure the very best for CWCS, and the educational community in Lincolnshire is hugely grateful to her for the strength of leadership she has shown. We all wish Mrs Stiles every happiness and success in the ventures she next pursues.

With CWCS due to join the Priory Federation of Academies Trust in September, we have been able to make an appointment ready for the start of the new academic year.

Simon Evans, currently Deputy Head at The Priory Academy LSST in Lincoln, will become Headteacher at CWCS from 1st September 2017. Mr Evans has previously been Assistant Head and Head of Mathematics at LSST, having joined the school in 2005 as a Maths teacher. He began his teaching career in 2001 at Aylestone High School in Hereford, where he was also a House Leader.

Mr Evans will be supported by an experienced and talented senior leadership team, comprising:
Mrs Warnock (currently Assistant Head at CWCS)
Miss Neal (currently Assistant Head at CWCS)
Mr Newbold (currently Assistant Head at LSST)
Miss Creaser (currently Assistant Head at LSST)

In closing, I would like to remind you of the opportunity to attend a meeting on Thursday 6th July at 6pm in the school hall. It will include an address from the Chief Executive of the Priory Federation, Mr Ian Jones, as well as an opportunity to meet Mr Evans and members of his new leadership team.

Yours sincerely

Howard Gee
Chair, Priory Federation of Academies Trust
